State law requires that each student identify any relation to a current Board of Regent member. A student who is related to a current member of the governing board of that institution is prohibited from receiving scholarships unless the scholarship is awarded exclusively based on academic merit or is an athletic scholarship. It is a Class B misdemeanor to file a false statement.

Please review a list of current members of The Texas State University System Board of Regents at www.tsus.edu/regents/index.html and select the most appropriate answer below indicating your relation to any of the Board's members.

- Not related to a Regent
- Regent's mother, father, daughter or son
- Regent's brother, sister, grandparent or grandchild
- Regent's great-grandchild, uncle (brother of parent), aunt (sister of parent), nephew (son of brother or sister), or niece (daughter of brother or sister)
- Regent's spouse; spouse's child; spouse's mother or father; child's spouse; or parent's spouse
- Regent's spouse's brother or sister; spouse's grandparent; spouse's grandchild; brother or sister's spouse; grandparent's spouse; or grandchild's spouse

All information on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I certify that I intend to enroll full time at Texas State for the upcoming academic year. I understand I must remain in good disciplinary standing at Texas State in order to remain eligible for Texas State scholarships.

Signature of applicant: _____ Date: _____

Part B: Résumé and personal essay

All applicants must provide:

- one-page résumé that outlines major academic awards/honors, leadership activities and non-academic activities and awards, as well as any work experience since high school
- one personal essay from the four options outlined below

Remember, your essay is used to make final scholarship decisions. It should be a thoughtful, well-developed essay. To facilitate review, an essay should be typed, double-spaced and 500-750 words maximum, which is approximately 2 1/2 pages. No essay topic listed below is preferred over another.

1. Explain how and why your life has been significantly influenced by a person (living or dead), an event or a particular book. Be specific, descriptive and introspective.
2. Use the following statement as a basis for your essay to fully explain your attitude. "As a ___ year-old in the year ___, I am most optimistic (or pessimistic) about my future in the United States because..."
3. Describe a challenge and/or hardship to which you have successfully responded. What did you learn about yourself as you responded to this challenge and/or hardship? Describe a challenge you anticipate facing in any aspect of college life. On the basis of what you learned from your earlier response, how do you expect to deal with this challenge?
4. Three of Texas State's goals are, in part, as follows:
 - promote academic quality
 - expand access to public university education and contribute to the economic and cultural development of Texas
 - enrich our learning environment

How would you assist Texas State in accomplishing these goals? Please reference any exceptional achievements or special talents (such as poetry, artwork, bilingual proficiency, etc.) you might possess.
