Cost of Attendance

• Cost of Attendance (COA) establishes the maximum amount of aid a student can receive.
• The COA is an average of the educational expenses incurred by students.
• The COA is comprised of the following components:
  - Tuition and fees
  - Books and supplies
  - Room and board
  - Personal items
  - Transportation
Types of Aid

The types of financial aid that count toward the Cost of Attendance (i.e., student’s aid limit) include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Scholarships
- Federal, state and other grants
- Work study
- Student and parent educational loans
- Tuition adjustments and waivers
- AmeriCorps
- Fellowships
- McNair Postbaccalaureate Achievement Program
- And more …
U.S. Department of Education Requirements Related to Enrollment and Cost of Attendance (COA)

- Tax-payer funded financial aid is to cover only educationally-related costs incurred by the student.
- A student cannot receive aid in excess of their COA.
- Schools must adjust each student's COA as changes in enrollment occur through the semester’s census date.
- Adjusting the COA to reflect actual costs (e.g., actual tuition and fees) prevents students from receiving tax-payer funds for course costs they are not incurring.
